Disney · PIXAR

HOPPERS

FUN FACTS & EASTER EGGS

FUN FACTS FROM PRODUCTION:

- The Hop animation team built their own Superlodge in the animation polish room (named The Glade) by gluing one stick to the wall for every shot approved in a polish session. Here's Evan Bonifacio (animator) gluing the final stick onto their masterpiece.

- All three of the actors that voice the main bears in Cartoon Network's "We Bare Bears" (directed by Daniel Chong) appear as voices in "Hoppers." Bobby Moynihan voices King George, Demetri Martin is the worm, and Eric Edelstein plays one of the construction workers.
- Piper Curda (voice of Mabel) recorded the line "This is like Avatar" 83 times.
- There were 19,436 ants in the scene "Destroy The Dam."
- It took 39,256 butterflies to summon and lift the weight of the Apex Predator.
- It took 547 snakes to form a wave and overtake Mabel.
- Dianne the Shark was airlifted by 413 burly seagulls.

- The tailoring department created 52 background garments in 117 different styles. The most used garment is a T-shirt used in 39 different backgrounds in the film. Tailoring created 87 total garments for main characters.
- 62,939 sticks were used to create the Superlodge mound seen in the film.
- The total number of trees grown in the Superlodge area is: 251,663.
- The total number of props in the Hoppers Lab and the robot fabrication room is: 3,534.
- The costal highway Jerry drives on during the chase scene is 8.5 miles long.
- The crew (pictured below) added effects and simulation to 1718 film shots (plus 28 credits shots). 348 shots needed vegetation simulation and 1633 shots needed character simulation.

- Mabel's classroom lizard is named "Rocket" after simulation artist, Robert Kosai's, pet spotted gecko - as noted by the rocket sticker on the terrarium.

- Sonoko Konishi (simulation artist) created Dr. Sam's makeshift beaver disguise costume, featured in the film, in real life.

EASTER EGGS:

- The Pixar Lamp is featured in the scene: "Meet Mabel."
- Mabel's class pet turtle in "Meet Mabel" is named Crush, after Crush from Finding Nemo.

- The Pizza Planet truck from Toy Story can be seen as a miniature in the display case behind Mabel in “Meet Mabel.”

- A toy from Cartoon Network’s series “We Bare Bears” (directed by Hoppers director, Daniel Chong) can be seen in Mabel’s bedroom.
- Art from Hoppers composer Mark Mothersbaugh’s band Devo can be spotted in Mabel’s bedroom.
- Art by Piper Curda (voice of Mabel) can be found in Mabel’s bedroom.
- Displayed in Mabel’s bedroom is one of the new toys from Toy Story 5, Atlas.

- A113 is Dr. Sam's office number.
- Dr. Sam's full name (Dr. Samantha E. Fairfax) pays homage to Dr. Emily Fairfax, professor of geography, who consulted on the film as a beaver expert.

- The beetles in frame behind Dr. Sam are from The Good Dinosaur.

- Pixarian names are included in the body of the articles seen in the film.

- The “other candidate” running against Mayor Jerry is named after Tom Nettleship (senior software engineer at Pixar).

- Photos of Mr. Mittens from Soul and Gamma from Up can be seen online, next to the article “17 Mayors We’re Obsessed With” in the film.

- Outside of Mayor Jerry's mom's house, a baby blanket with a Brave-themed custom tartan pattern can be spotted.

- Christine Jiang's (senior production finance manager) name inspired the doctor's name who attended to Grandma Tanaka in the hospital, and can be seen on Grandma Tanaka's hospital wristband.

Black cat: Gatto

A113

Emily's last name

Pizza Planet Truck

Office numbers and map from Pixar Bldg

Dug Days Puppy

Kids from Elio

Homage to Russell's Wilderness Exploror costume (Up)

Annee's Corner Market

Cat (Soul)

Gamma (Up)

Piper's drawing

Mark's drawing

Onward Van Model

Kiki Poh equation

Drawings and notes about Beaver Dams by Emily Fairfax

Objects from Muntz's lair (Up)

Photo of woman (Incredibles 2 BG)

Objects from Muntz's lair (Up)

Emilia: DLM's daughter